INTRODUCTION

This book is privatized. Privatized means that information (names, dates and places) about living people is not shown, except where they may be mentioned in some public published document (newspaper, vital record, census record, headstone, etc.). They will be shown as "Living" without the quotes. People without a death date who are older than 100 will not be privatized. There are many such people where I have not found a death date to enter. If you are a member of the family of the subject of this book and you want a non-privatized digital version of this book you will need to send me a formal request by email (bob.arens37@gmail.com) declaring that "Robert Arens will not be held legally responsible for any of its content". I will maintain a file of such email requests in order to protect myself from possible future lawsuits about any information disclosed in these non-privatized books. And, if you wish, I can create and furnish you with a unique password for your requested digital genealogy book.

I apologize for any misspellings of given names and surnames. Prior to about 1790 the surname given to the children on recorded documents was not always the same as their father's surname. Rather, it was more often the name of the house where they were born. Children were sometimes born in the house of their mother's family. In cases where these types of birth records occur, I often give the child, and his descendants going forward, a hyphenated surname such as Kass-Loes or Hansen-Wag(e)ner for example. Wagner is sometime spelled as Wagener, thus the (e). Also, the spelling of a surname on records is not always the same. On one of my own Luxembourg "Arens" records this surname is spelled three different ways on the very same document.

The spelling of given names, such as "John", for example depended upon the nationality of the family; Jean for French, Johann for German, and Johannes for Latin and John for English and many other variations such as Ian, Ivan, Juan, etc. Wherever possible in my genealogy books I use the "Americanized" version of given names. For example, Nicholas instead of Nikolas etc.

Much of the Luxembourg genealogy in this book has been taken from the marvelous work of the people who created and maintain the Luxembourg genealogy web site called luxroots.com.

(4/28/2020 6:10:03 AM)

Don was born to Helen (Langel) and Lawrence Ney in Granville on May 9, 1944. Don went on to graduate from St. Joseph high school in 1962 and then served in the US Army National Guard. Don went into farming, which he continued until his death. He also owned Don Ney Trucking. Don was an over-the-road truck driver for 29 years.

Don married Bonnie Jean Ruden in 1965, and through this union he was blessed with his son John. Bonnie died in 1967.

Don later married Joan Blatt Ney. Through this marriage, he adopted four children: Laura, Larry, Terry, and Bob. Don and Joan went on to have Mary and Ken. Joan died July 26, 2006.

Don will be remembered for making friends wherever he went, for having a joke to share, and for being the life of the party. Don loved to cook and attend to "prayer group." We will miss his phone calls, his Emails, and so much more that cannot be contained in an obituary.

Don is survived by six children, John (Sarah) Ney of Oak Harbor, WA, Laura (Bill) Woudstra of McCook Lake, SD, Larry (Laura) Ney of Jackson, NE, Bob (Darcy) Ney of Melvin, IA, Mary Ney (engaged to Greg Middleton) of Omaha, NE, and Ken "Kicker" Ney of Granville. His children gave Don 10 grandchildren: Bill (Fay), Kim (Sean), Christina, Breijanna, Blake, Brennan, Maddie, Lindsey, Mike, and Tim; and 3 great-grandchildren. Other survivors include brothers, Jim (Pauline) Ney of Albuquerque, NM, and Mark (Barb) Ney of Bloomington, MN; sisters, Judy (Irv) Block of Ashton, IA, Jane (Jim) Streff of West Plaines, MO, and Joyce (Mark) Even of Rochester, MN; his mother-in-law, Lorraine Ruden of LeMars, IA; and several brothers- and sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, friends, and neighbors.

Also injured was a passenger, Lewis Martin, 23, of Omaha. Both Martin was taken to Lake of the Ozarks General Hospital, where he was treated for injuries and released.
The accident occurred after Ellerbroek's car went off the right shoulder of the road.
