INTRODUCTION

This book is privatized. Privatized means that information (names, dates and places) about living people is not shown, except where they may be mentioned in some public published document (newspaper, vital record, census record, headstone, etc.). They will be shown as “Living” without the quotes. People without a death date who are older than 100 will not be privatized. There are many such people where I have not found a death date to enter. If you are a member of the family of the subject of this book and you want a non-privatized digital version of this book you will need to send me a formal request by email (bob.arens37@gmail.com) declaring that “Robert Arens will not be held legally responsible for any of its content”. I will maintain a file of such email requests in order to protect myself from possible future lawsuites about any information disclosed in these non-privatized books. And, if you wish, I can create and furnish you with a unique password for your requested digital genealogy book.

I apologize for any misspellings of given names and surnames. Prior to about 1790 the surname given to the children on recorded documents was not always the same as their father's surname. Rather, it was more often the name of the house where they were born. Children were sometimes born in the house of their mother's family. In cases where these types of birth records occur, I often give the child, and his descendants going forward, a hyphenated surname such as Kass-Loes or Hansen-Wag(e)ner for example. Wagner is sometime spelled as Wagener, thus the (e). Also, the spelling of a surname on records is not always the same. On one of my own Luxembourg “Arens” records this surname is spelled three different ways on the very same document.

The spelling of given names, such as “John”, for example depended upon the nationality of the family; Jean for French, Johann for German, and Johannes for Latin and John for English and many other variations such at Ian, Ivan, Juan, etc. Wherever possible in my genealogy books I use the “Americanized” version of given names. For example, Nicholas instead of Nikolas etc.

Much of the Luxembourg genealogy in this book has been taken from the marvelous work of the people who created and maintain the Luxembourg genealogy web site called luxroots.com.

Luxemburger Nachrichten.

Aus den Ver. Staaten.

Wie wir aus Luxemburg aus zuverlässiger Quelle vernehmen, ist der hochw'ste Bischof Hr. J. J. Kappes bei guter Gesundheit. Er wird wahrscheinlich mit dem Cardinal-Legaten nach Montreal, Canada, zum heurigen Eucharistischen Congreß pilgern und nachher, wenn möglich, seine amerikanischen Freunde im gelobten U. S. besuchen kommen. — Kommen Sie nur, Herr Bischof, wir können getrost im Namen unserer amerikanischen Luxemburger Ihnen zurufen, daß Sie bei uns Aller und bei jedem Einzelnen herzlich willkommen sein werden!

In den in letzter Nummer beschriebenen Unglück, das der Frau John Stelling von LaPlotte, Iowa, Route 1, passierte, möchten wir hier noch Folgendes berichtigen: Jene Männer, welche die durchgehenden Pferde auffingen, waren keineswegs, wie in der Tagespresse stand „Besoffene" und wie in unserem Blatte fand „Tagdiebe", sie zwangen die besagte Frau auch nicht, ihre ganze Baarschaft abzugeben; nach machten sich hernach die Farmerssöhne, wo die Verwundete sich hinschleppte, auf, um die „Betrunkenen" zu zwingen, das Geld wieder zurückzuerstatten. Keineswegs. Diese ieriige Darstellung fanden wir in der Tagespresse und da eine Luxemburgerin im Spiele war, brachten wir drei Bericht. Es thut uns leid, wenn wir Jemanden hiermit an seiner Ehre geschadet haben sollten. Aber wir sind anderseits auch der Ansicht, daß wenn irgend Jemand in der Oeffentlichkeit in eine gewerthige Lage kommt, er die Presse hiervon sofort in Kenntniß setzt — eine Postkarte thut dies schon — indem er eine kurze Schilderung des wahren Sachverhalts gibt und nicht wartet, bis die Presse den Fall ausbeutet und die Wochenblätter mehrere Tage später erst diesselben behandeln.

Alton, Sioux County, Iowa. (Spezial-Correspondenz.) Eine eigentlich schöne Feier fand am 19. Mai in der hiesigen St. Marien-Kirche statt. Gerade vor 40 Jahren, am 19. Mai 1870, kamen die ersten katholischen Pioniere nach Sioux County. In den ersten Tagen des Mai-monats 1870 unternahmen achtzehn mit Ochsen bespannte Wagen — sogen. „Prairie Schooners" — die über 300 Meilen weite Fahrt vom Wisissippi-Fluß nach den nordwestlichen Iowa. Nur wer je eine ähnliche Reise gemacht hat, kann sich die Schwierigkeit einer solchen Fahrt vorstellen. Es ging über Berg und Thal, über angeschwollene Flüsse und Bäche und sumpfige Niederungen. Oft blieben die schweren Wagen in den sumpfigen Niederungen stecken, gar oft wohl fehlten die wilden Wanderer sich zurück nach den Ufern des Wisissippi. Endlich, am 19. Mai langten die Pioniere nach unsäglichen Mühen in Sioux County an. Weit und breit war keine menschliche Wohnung zu sehen, nur die weite, wilde, ode Prairie. Es waren der Pioniere gerade vierzig, eigenthümlicherweise alle Luxemburger, wie die folgenden Namen zeigen: Franz Arens, Michael Biever und Frau Magdalena und Söhne John, Peter und Jean; Peter, Nicolaus und Heinrich Frantzen; Nicolaus und Peter Ginsbach; Theodor Gehlen; Franz Hansen und Frau Margaretha nebst ihren Kindern Peter, John, Catharina, Susanna, Margaretha und Georg; Math. Harens; Nicolaus Kass; Math. Konz und Frau Susanna nebst kindern Peter, Math., John, Margaretha, Susanna, Jacob, Nicolaus und Peter M.; Nicolaus Nemmers; Peter Ney; Peter Perlot und Frau; Heinrich Remacle, Peter Wagner und Frau Maria und Tochter Theresia. Von den Genannten leben heute noch 22, da 18 gestorben sind. In den nachstfolgenden Jahren kamen dann noch andere Pioniere hinzu, und so entstanden die blühenden Gemeinden in Plymouth und Sioux Counties: LeMars, Alton, Remsen, Hospers, Granville, Oyens. Wohl hatten die ersten Ansiedler und ihre Nachfolger wenig mehr als ihre starken Arme; aber sie hatten Muth und Gottvertrauen und einen tiefreligiösen Sinn. Auf offener Prairie beteten sie ihren Rosenkranz, sangen ihre aus der Heimath mitgebrachten frommen Lieder. Und so segnete Gott ihre harte Arbeit. Wo vor vierzig Jahren wilde Prairie war und die scheuen Thiere hermliefen, finden sich heute die schönsten Farmen. Gar manche der Pioniere sogen wieder fort, so hart war eben das erste Pionierleben im nordwestlichen Iowa; wohl Alle waren fortgezogen, hätten sie die Mittel dazu gehabt.

Klein Wunder; dasz die alten Pioniere den Tag seiern wollten, da „Kreuz und Rosenkranz nach Sioux County gebracht wurden", wie der hochtw. Pfarrer sich ausdrückte in seiner Predigt; kein Wunder, daß sie und ihre Kinder und Freunde sich sammeln wollten im hause Gottes, um dem Geber alles Guten zu danken und ihn zu bitten um seinen ferneren Schutz und Segen. Nicht nur die alten Pioniere sondern fast die ganze Gemeinde eilte zur prachtvollen Kirche, um dem Danksagungs-Amte beizuwohnen. Auch aus den Nachbargemeinden hatten sich freudige Besucher und fromme Peter eingefunden. Hochw. Dechant Brune hielt eine passende Predigt. Er wies hin auf die Opfer und Mühen der alten Ansiedler, auf ihren Muth und ihr Gottvertrauen, besonders auf ihre Glaubensstarke, die vor vierzig Jahren „Kreuz und Rosenkranz in diese damals so öde, heute so gesegnete Gegend brachten".

Am Nachmittage unterhielten sich die Pioniere und ihre Freunde im gastlichen Heim des Herrn Peter Hansen. Erinnerungen aus vergangener Zeit wurden aufgefrischt, manche recht drollige und komische Art. Gegen Abend erschien auch noch der St. Marien Männerchor und erfreute die Versammelten mit manchen schönen Liedern.

Am nächsten Morgen, Freitag, wurde ein Hochamt gehalten für die verstorbenen Pioniere, und recht viele Gemeindemitglieder wohnten dem Gottesdienste bei. Möge es den noch jetzt lebenden Ansiedlern vergönnt sein, noch zehn Jahren das goldene Jubiläum zu feiern, da „Kreuz und Rosenkranz nach Sioux County gebracht wurden"! — F. J. B.

Aus Spencer, S. D., hören wir nicht oft etwas, aber wenn Jemand kommt, dann ist's gewöhnlich eine gute. So auch diesmal. Lesen wir da in der „Syracuse Union", der bekannte Indianerfreund Pfarrer J. Neuland sei gegenwärtig am Kirchenbauen. Das bedeutet nicht nur eine fröhliche, sondern viele, noch ernstige Sommerzeit. Das neue Kirchle wird die folgenden Dimensionen haben: 154 bei 50; im Transept 70; Höhe des Mittelschiffes 50; und zwei Thürme halten, im gothischen Stile gebaut werden und $60,000 kosten. Daß das Projekt schon greifbare Formen angenommen, geht aus den folgenden Zeilen hervor, die dem genannten Blatte entnommen sind: Syracuse, 17. Mai. — „Moving pictures". Herr Medoliere, „reel moving pictures", hatte Sie heute Morgen gegen 9 Uhr sehen können hier oben auf dem Schwobenberg, „real moving pictures". Heute nämlich wurde der erste Spatenstich gethan zur Ausgrabung des Fundamentes zur neuen Kirche. Eine beträchtliche Anzahl Neugierher, meist Mitglieder der Gemeinde, und die Schulkinder, füllten den Bauplatz an. Mehrere Gespann Zugpferde hat der Wagen und Pflug, eine Anzahl dunkelhäutiger Arbeiter mit Picke und Schaufel, in der Mitte aber der Pfarrer J. Neuland und der Hilfspfarrer H. Kirchen, die Schaufel in der Hand, verwollständigten die Schaargruppe. Und der erste Spatenstich wurde fachgerecht nach allen Regeln der Mechanik ausgeführt von beiden Priestern zum großen Gaudium aller Zuschauer. In nächster Nähe aber standen zwei Matadoren der Kunst, Photographen genannt, mit der Kamera, um das große Ereignis für immer in einem Bilde festzuhalten und der Nachwelt zu überliefern. Der erste Spatenstich am 17. Mai wird nunmehr mit dem Hellerschen Notizen, wie alle großen Ereignisse, in die Annalen der Weltgeschichte übergehen. Dort wird man lesen: Am 17. Mai 1910, der erste Spatenstich zur neuen katholischen deutschen Dreifaltigkeits-Kirche in Syracuse; am 18. Mai 1910, der Hallen'sche Komet in nächster Nähe der Erde, schweifbedeckt. Nachdem die Zeremonie des ersten Spatenstiches vorüber war, zerstreute sich die Menge wieder, und die Arbeit der Ausgrabung wurde wacker in Angriff genommen. Man gedenkt den Bau noch vor Eintritt des Frostes unter Dach und Fach zu bringen, und, so Gott will, nächstes Jahr um diese Zeit darin Gottesdienst zu halten.

Rose Creek, Minn., den 24. Mai 1910. (Correspondenz.) Werthe Redaktion! Sieben wie Zwei, Schwager J. P. Schroeder, wohlbestellter Farmer von Lanai, und Unterzeichneter, gemüthlich, wie einst vor 35 Jahren, zusammen hier im trauten Heim und ergehen uns an der hoch interessanten „Luxemburger Gazette". Da fällt es mir denn ein, daß ich vergessen, Ihnen die Neuigkeit mitzutheilen: Am 10. Mai wurde meine jüngste Tochter Elisabeth, geboren 1890 zu White Lake, S. D., den ehrsamen Jos. H. Ulwelling, von neben Johnsburg, angetraut. Bei der kirchlichen Feier sang der Familien-Männerchor eine schöne vierstimmige Messe und andere mehrstimmige Einlagen. Nachher fand eine traulich, ungemüthliche Hochzeitsfeier bei uns statt, zu welcher die Brüder und Schwestern des Bräutigams und der Braut erschienen waren. Bei dieser Gelegenheit erschallten auch verschiedene mehrstimmige Weisen, dazwischen auch viele luxemburger Liedchen aus alter Zeit. Da fühlte sich Onkel J. P. Schroeder wieder in seinen Element, trotz seiner 72 Jahre, wie er überhaupt glüstlich war, seine Schwester Anna, die Mutter der Braut, nach zehn Jahren wieder einmal zu sehen. Das Brautpaar wird sich auf der schönen Farm, die Papa J. P. Ulwelling seinem Sohn vermacht, häuslich niederlassen, zu dem brautlichen „Lebe hoch!" am Hochzeitstage nach einmal unser Aller herzlichste Glückwünsche und Gottes Segen! — Das hochl. Erzbischofsamts-Fest soll hier recht würdig gefeiert werden mit Prozession durch die Straßen der zum größten Theile katholischen Stadt. Auch sind Vorbereitungen im Gang das Fest Peter und Paul, die Schutzheiligen unserer beiden Vereine (St. Peter C. U. F. und St. Paul A. U. V.) festlich zu begehen. Unter der unsichtigen Leitung unseres hochw. Pfarrers Vogt P. Jubel ist unsere St. Peter's-Gemeinde fest auf dem Wege des hohen Geschlechtes. — A. P. Arens, Corr.

English:
Alton, Sioux County, Iowa.
(Special Correspondence.) A strangely beautiful celebration took place on 19 May in the local St. Mary's Church. Just 40 years ago, on May 19, 1870, the first Catholic pioneers came to Sioux County. In the first days of the May month of 1870, eighteen oxen-drawn wagons took place. "Prairie Schooner" - over 300 miles from the Mississippi River to northwest Iowa. Only those who have ever made a similar trip can imagine the difficulty of such a trip. It went over mountain and valley, over swollen rivers and streams, and alluvial lowlands. Often the heavy wagons were stuck in the swampy lowlands, and often the weary wanderers made their way back to the shores of the Mississippi. Finally, on 19 May, the pioneers arrived in Sioux County after a miserable living. Far and vide there was no human habitation to see but the vast, wild, or prairie. It was the pioneers just forty, peculiarly all Luxembourgers, as the following names go: Franz Arens, Michael Biever and Mrs. Magdalena and sons John, Peter and Jean; Peter, Nicolaus and Heinrich Frantzen; Nicolaus and Peter Ginsbach; Theodor Gehlen; Franz Hansen and Mrs. Margaretha with their children Peter, John, Catharina, Susanna, Margaretha and Georg; Math. Harens; Nicolaus Kass; Math. Konz and Mrs. Susanna and their children Peter, Math., John, Margaretha, Susanna, Jacob, Nicolaus and Peter M.; Nicolaus Nemmers; Peter Ney; Peter Perlot and wife; Heinrich Remacle, Peter Wagner and Mrs. Maria and daughter Theresia. 22 of those still live today, as 18 have died. In the years that followed, other pioneers came along, and so did the flourishing communities of Plymouth and Sioux Counties: LeMars, Alton, Remsen, Hospers, Granville, Oyens. It is true that the first settlers and their followers had little more than their strong arms; but they had courage and faith in God and a deep religious sense. On open Prairie they prayed their rosary, sang their pious songs brought from the home. And so God blessed their hard work. Where forty years ago wild prairie and the skeletons of dead cherry and other animals lay around, the most beautiful farms can be found today. Many of the pioneers moved on, as hard as the first pioneering life in northwestern Iowa; everyone had left, they had the means.

Small wonder, that the old pioneers wanted to march the day when "cross and rosary were brought to Sioux County," as the high-priest, in his avarice, extracted himself; It was a miracle that they and their children and friends wanted to gather in the house of God, in order to thank the Giver of all good and to ask him, and his further protection and blessing. Not only the old pioneers but almost the entire community hurried to the magnificent church to attend the Thanksgiving Office. Joyful visitors and pious Peter had also joined in from the neighboring communities. Reverend, Dechant Brune delivered a suitable sermon. He referred to the dos and don'ts of the old settlers, to their courage and their god-shying, and especially to their faithful catechu, who forty years ago called "Cross and Rosary brought in this then so today, so blessed today area ".

In the afternoon, the pioneers and their friends talked in the hospitable home of Mr. Peter Hansen. Reminiscences of the past were refreshed, some of them rather funny and comical. Towards the evening the St. Mary's Men's Choir also appeared and delighted those present with some beautiful songs.

The next morning, Frietag, was held a high mass for the departed pioneers, and many parishioners attended the services. It may be possible for the still living settlers to celebrate the Golden Jubilee after ten years, as "The cross and the rosary were brought to Sioux County" — — F.J.B.

HOGAN, DR. LEOLA R.

Dr. Leola R. Hogan, nee Raymond, born July 20, 1931, passed away peacefully Nov. 8, 2009 surrounded by her loving children. A resident of Chicago, Leola was born in New Orleans, Louisiana, and was a retired Professor Emeritus of Nursing from Eastern Michigan University. She earned her PhD from the University of Michigan in 1986, after raising four children and while working full-time as a professor, in juggling, family, work and educational pursuits, she was a pioneer among women professionals. Leola was one of three children, born to the late James and Leola Raymond. She is survived and lovingly remembered by her children, Mary, Kathleen, Robert and Kara; her grandchildren Colin, Taylor, Ayla, Ella and Maryn; also survived by her brothers, James and Gerrard of New Orleans; and fondly remembered by many other friends fortunate to have known her. Along with being a distinguished academic and cherished by her students, Leola was an accomplished artist and studied fine arts at Louisiana State University. Though she lived most of her adult life in the Midwest, Leola's heart was always in New Orleans. She was fond of the "nice things" in life, possessing impeccable taste in food and style. Leola was known for her quick wit and amazingly unique sense of humor. Her engaging personality brought smiles and laughs to all she knew. Leola's family would like to extend their sincere gratitude to the staff at Northwestern Memorial Hospital, most notably to her physicians, Lauren Wiebe, Jessica Yarber, Angelo Costas, and Andrew Thurston. Special thanks is warmly extended to the staff at Midwest Palliative and Hospice Care Center, Skokie, IL, for their loving and compassionate care of Leola in her final hours. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Northwestern Memorial Hospital Palliative Care or the Midwest Palliative and Hospice Care Center, Skokie, IL.
