INTRODUCTION

This book is privatized. Privatized means that information (names, dates and places) about living people is not shown, except where they may be mentioned in some public published document (newspaper, vital record, census record, headstone, etc.). They will be shown as “Living” without the quotes. People without a death date who are older than 100 will not be privatized. There are many such people where I have not found a death date to enter. If you are a member of the family of the subject of this book and you want a non-privatized digital version of this book you will need to send me a formal request by email (bob.arens37@gmail.com) declaring that “Robert Arens will not be held legally responsible for any of its content”. I will maintain a file of such email requests in order to protect myself from possible future lawsuits about any information disclosed in these non-privatized books. And, if you wish, I can create and furnish you with a unique password for your requested digital genealogy book.

I apologize for any misspellings of given names and surnames. Prior to about 1790 the surname given to the children on recorded documents was not always the same as their father's surname. Rather, it was more often the name of the house where they were born. Children were sometimes born in the house of their mother's family. In cases where these types of birth records occur, I often give the child, and his descendants going forward, a hyphenated surname such as Kass-Loes or Hansen-Wag(e)ner for example. Wagner is sometime spelled as Wagener, thus the (e). Also, the spelling of a surname on records is not always the same. On one of my own Luxembourg “Arens” records this surname is spelled three different ways on the very same document.

The spelling of given names, such as “John”, for example depended upon the nationality of the family; Jean for French, Johann for German, and Johannes for Latin and John for English and many other variations such as Ian, Ivan, Juan, etc. Wherever possible in my genealogy books I use the “Americanized” version of given names. For example, Nicholas instead of Nikolas etc.

Much of the Luxembourg genealogy in this book has been taken from the marvelous work of the people who created and maintain the Luxembourg genealogy web site called luxroots.com.

ATTACK ON PT. ARTHUR

FULL EXTENT OF THE DAMAGE IS NOT YET KNOWN.

AFTER MUCH MANEUVERING

The Japanese Squadron Makes Repeated Attacks And Then Retired.

According to the Russian Report Their Loss Was Not Great While a Japanese Battleship Was Crippled and Forced to Retire—Entrance to the Harbor Reported Blocked.

* PORT ARTHUR IS BLOCKED. *

LONDON, March 23.—The correspondent of the Times at Tokio under yesterday's date cables it is rumored the Japanese have succeeded in blocking the entrance to Port Arthur.

St. Petersburg, March 22.—The Emperor has received the following telegram from Viceroy Alexieff: "Lieutenant General Stoessel reports at midnight, March 21, the Japanese torpedo boats were discovered by our searchlights. Our guardships and fort batteries opened fire upon them. The firing lasting 20 minutes. At 4 o'clock in the morning the attack was renewed. "At 6:30 o'clock in the morning four of the enemy's ships appeared from the south, followed by a whole squadron of eleven ships and eight torpedo boats. Our squadron left the roadstead to meet the enemy."

A later telegram from the Viceroy to the Emperor says: "According to a supplementary dispatch from Lieutenant General Stoessel the enemy's fleet consisted of six battleships and twelve cruisers. About nine o'clock in the morning the fleet divided, the battleships and torpedo boats taking a position between Liao Tsin and Golubina bay (Pigeon bay) while the cruisers formed to the south and east of Port Arthur. At 9:20 the battleship Retvizan opened fire over the crest of Liao Tsin against the enemy's battleships which replied by firing on the town. Meanwhile our fleet formed up in line in the outer roadstead.

"About 11 o'clock in the morning the cannonade slackened and the Japanese fleet, re-uniting drew off slowly to the southeast and at 12:30 had disappeared.

"During the bombardment four soldiers were killed and nine wounded. One soldier on shore was bruised.

"Our shells, fired at a range of eight cables, were well placed. About 10 o'clock a Japanese battleship was struck by a shell and retired."

When the first official dispatches were received the belief gained ground that Vice Admiral Makaroff had put to sea and the naval fight had taken place. Later advices established the fact the admiral had simply gone with the undamaged portion of his fleet to the outer roads where he could more effectively support the batteries and at the same time take advantage of any weakness which might develop in the enemy's attack.

Story Partly Confirmed.

London, March 22.—A dispatch to the Reuter's Telegram Company from St. Petersburg says: "The Japanese torpedo boats appeared off Port Arthur at midnight on the night of March 21-22 and the shore batteries and guardships shelled them for twenty minutes.

"The Japanese retreated but reappeared four hours later when they met with the same reception, when they retired again.

"At 6 o'clock the Japanese squadron of two divisions composed of four and eleven ships, and accompanied by eight torpedo boats, appeared and the Russian squadron sailed out into the outer roadstead to meet them.

"No further details regarding the action are obtainable. At 9 a. m. the Japanese battleships have fired several shots at Liao Tishin and sheltered behind the promontory commencing the bombardment of Port Arthur."

To Capture Battleships.

Paris, March 22.—The Echo De Paris correspondent at St. Petersburg says it is rumored in naval circles that the Vladivostock squadron has been ordered to overtake at a certain point in the Pacific a battleship and two cruisers bought from Chile by Japan and return with them to Vlad. ostock.

Afghanistan's Ruler Poisoned.

St. Petersburg, March 22.—A dispatch received from Ashkabad (capitol of the Russian trans-Caspian territory) says the rumor is current there that the Ameer of Afghanistan has been poisoned.

MILLS HAVE SHUT DOWN.

Lumber Manufacturers of Washington Demand a Market For Their Product.

SEATTLE, Wn., March 22.—With lumber $5 per thousand lower than it was a year ago, 157 mills in the Northwestern states have been shut down to await the decision of the transcontinental roads on the petition for a 40 cent rate into the Missouri river territory. The other mills running are stacking up their lumber to await the market demand.

SLEPT WITH A CORPSE.

Theodore Gehlen, Prominent Resident of Stayton, Expires in Portland Hotel.

After a night of peaceful slumber, John Spaniol, a flour mill owner of Stayton, Or., awakened at 5 o'clock this morning and discovered he had shared his couch with a corpse, Theodore Gehlen, his bedmate, having died during the night. Gehlen was proprietor of a store at Stayton, and the two had a room at Hotel Zur Rheinpfalz, Front and Madison streets. Heart trouble is supposed to have caused death. Members of the family of the deceased have been informed and are expected to arrive here tonight. The body is at the morgue.

Mr. Gehlen, who is about 55 years of age, was in his usual health when he retired last evening.

Mr. Gehlen and Mr. Spaniol came to Portland yesterday afternoon, intending to make some purchases today. Mr. Gehlen was to have been met here this evening by his son, who will now have to come on a mission of sorrow.

Mr. Gehlen leaves a wife and several children, some of whom are married. He is well and favorably known in the community surrounding Stayton, where he has lived for many years. Stayton is a small town not far from Salem. The family of Mr. Gehlen was notified this morning of the sudden death of the father. It is expected that some of them will arrive here this evening. Arrangements to ship the body to Stayton will be made later—Evening Telegram.

OPENING SHOT

THE REPUBLICANS OF EAST SALEM ARE PREPARED FOR THE PRIMARIES.

Held a Meeting on Monday, Named a Committee and This Committee Chose Four Candidates for Delegates to the County Convention—All Is Harmony in that Precinct.

A rousing and enthusiastic Republican meeting was called at East Salem precinct by precinct committeeman J. D. Horner, March 21, 1904, to name candidates to be voted for at primaries in said precinct March 28, 1904, to go to the county convention to be held in this city March 31, 1904, for the purpose of nominating good Republicans to fill the different county offices. The meeting was called to order at 7:30 o'clock by the precinct committeeman. Regardless of the high winds that had just swept over the country and the downpour of rain, the Republicans of east Salem turned out in a goodly number and the air was once more purified by good old Republicanism.

A number of good Republican speeches were made by the good Republicans of the precinct. Everything passed off in perfect harmony long to be remembered by those present.

A committee of three was appointed by the chair to name four candidates to be voted on at the primaries to go to the county convention. The committee naming the following gentlemen as candidates: J. D. Horner, A. Hager, H. R. Curtis and J. J. Krapps.

These four gentlemen were the unanimous choice of the meeting and after a good Republican speech from each of them stating their views on Republicanism and county officers the meeting adjourned.

General Notes: The Kehlen Luxembourg records wrongly confuse the two Peter Gehlen brothers born in 1817 and 1819.

According to the Olm records, the 1817 Peter is the one who married Maria Catherine Thimmesch on Dec 18, 1841 and then Catherine Freymann on February 23, 1846 and then died Feb 24, 1848 as the husband of Maria Catherine Thimmesch.

Apparently the 1841 marriage correctly uses the 1817 birth date. AND, the 1848 death record wrongly gives the age as 31 instead of 28.

Peter GEHLEN. On Saturday, March 22, 1879. Peter Gehlen, aged 60 years 2 months and 22 days.

ASHES TO ASHES

Mr. Gehlen was among the first settlers in Le Mars, and contributed largely to its growth. He was known, respected, loved and revered by a large circle of friends, and when it was whispered that he was dead, a subdued grief touched

Descendants of gnu (Gellen) Gehlen

every heart for every one felt as if he had lost a personal friend.

Peter Gehlen was born in the city of Olm in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, January 1, 1819. At the age of 12, he went to Reims, France, an antique city in the department of Marne, some 25 miles northwest of Chalcus on the Velse, here he spent some fourteen years of his life, and when about 26 years old returned to his native town and married. Being imbued with great energy, and not scope enough for his ambition in the overcrowded Fatherland, he set sail with his young wife for America, and in the month of July 1846, landed in the city of New Orleans. Not relishing the climate, he pushed, he pushed north to Saint Louis, where he left his wife, and set out again northward. He visited Galena and its neighborhood, then went to Dubuque, and finally purchased a farm within nine miles of that city, in Jackson county. Here he settled with his wife and prospered. Two children were born to him but they both died as did also his wife - two or three years after his settlement. In 1849 he was married a second time to Miss Mary Freiman, by Bishop Loras, in the Dubuque Cathedral. Twelve children blessed this union, and nine still live. He devoted himself assiduously to business and mercantile and milling pursuits. He was among the most honored and prosperous citizens of Jackson County, and when, upon the completion of the Dubuque and Sioux City R.R., he announced his intention of "going west" there was a considerable feeling of incredulous surprise. With him, however, to resolved was to act. On the 25th day of March 1870, Mr. Gehlen arrived at the unnamed station of Le Mars, and boldly began the erection of a flour mill, though there were not fifty acres of wheat within twenty miles of the vacant town site.

Through his influence, direct and indirect, hundreds of hundreds of Luxembourgers have been attracted hither, and to him is our country indebted for a large number of the thrifty farmers now developing the resources of Plymouth County. He located some twenty poor families in the neighborhood of Hospers, in Sioux county, and virtually supported them until they were able to support themselves. Mr. Gehlen was so delicate in his benevolence, that even the recipients of his charity scarcely knew the hand that protected and fed them. He was regarded as a father by his fellow countrymen in the Northwest, and was ever ready by word and deed to aid and counsel them.

But it was not only among his own people that he was esteemed. Everybody, without distinction of nationality, respected Peter Gehlen for the unswerving integrity of his character. His word was as good as his bond, and in business circles, clear cut honesty characterized all his transactions. He was of a kindly and gentle nature, and wherever he went a genial smile was his greeting. In politics he was nominally a democrat, yet in local, state and national affairs he exercised a discriminating and manly independence.

He was a devout Catholic. He loved the Church with a depth of tenderness that knew no bounds, and sought to conform his life to its highest spiritual teachings. When he came to Le Mars, his first care was to erect an altar to the Church of his love. He secured the occasional services of a priest. His house was the temple, his piano served for an altar, and the sacred rites of the Church were solemnized as fervently in his humble house, as in the grandest Cathedral. Through his energy a plot of several acres was accrued from the land company in 1870, and the foundation of the present splendid church edifice was laid. He donated eight acres of land for the cemetery and other purposes, and has contributed with great liberality to the Church he loved so well.

THE FUNERAL

The funeral, which took place last Monday, was the largest ever seen in Le Mars. It was a beautiful day. From far and near, the people poured in to show their last token of respect. It was nearly 11 o'clock when the procession formed. In the lead an acolyte bore the cross; next came a concourse of children, followed my women. The members of the St. Cecelism Society wearing their regalia, in number upwards of sixty, formed the immediate escort. Three priests, the Reverend Father Meis of Le Mars, Lenahan of Sioux City and Nemmers of Gilberts Ville, near Waterloo, Iowa, the latter a nephew of the deceased, preceded the hearse, alongside of which walked the pallbearers, after which came the members of the family in a carriage, followed by citizens in carriages. The procession was a full half mile in length, and there were fully one thousand persons in it. As the great concourse of people moved from the Gehlen residence to the church, the choristers chanted the De Profundis and Miserere. The bell of the Catholic church tolled from the time the funeral cortege started until it arrived at the church. so general and profound was the respect for the deceased that the bells on the Methodist and Congregationalist churches too sent forth their deep tones of sympathy. 'Tis thus a noble life and a common humanity stirs the universal soul, makes it forget the arbitrary boundary of creeds, and wakes it to the recognition of the true worth wherever it is found.

The church and the alter were draped in deep mourning. A Solemn High Mass was celebrated by the priests. Fathers Nemmers and Lenahan paid a touching tribute to the deceased, the former in German, the latter in English. After the services, the mortal remains were carried to the cemetery, where Father Meis made some impressive remarks, and all that was mortal of Peter Gehlen consigned to the earth.

General Notes: October 20, 2019 email by Ethel (Minten) Heidesch:

As I was reviewing some of the papers I've received about the wagon train, I see that there is some confusion about my great-grandfather, Theodore Gehlen, who lived just east of Alton on what is now Highway #10. He was a member of the wagon train in 1870. He moved to Sublimity, Oregon in 1892, and died in Portland on a visit to the bishop there. He was one of two people who went to petition the bishop to establish a parish in Stayton, Or. and died in his sleep in the hotel.

He also donated the land in Stayton, OR, for the Catholic church there.

He is sometimes called Junior, even though his father was Peter, to prevent being confused with his UNCLE and STEP-FATHER Theodore, who is the one buried in Sedgewick, KS.

Theo Sr. did not go to eastern Iowa and was not on the wagon train.

George married Philomena Lueken, daughter of George Lueken and Katie Knobbie, on 22 Oct 1898 in Garden Plain, Sedgwick, Kansas, USA. Philomena was born on 22 Oct 1867 in Effingham, Effingham, Illinois, USA and died on 18 Feb 1941 in Colwich, Sedgwick, Kansas, USA at age 73.

Marriage Notes: Newspaper atricle:

George and Philomena (Lueken) Gehlen

George Gehlen was born January 3, 1859, [January 4, 1858] in Luxembourg, Germany [Olm, Luxembourg]. His parents were Theodore and Katie (Thimmesch) Gehlen. George was the second youngest of the seven [ten] children.

Philomena was born on October 22, 1867 at Effingham, Illinois. Her parents were George and Katie (Knobbie) Lueken. She was the third youngest of nine children.

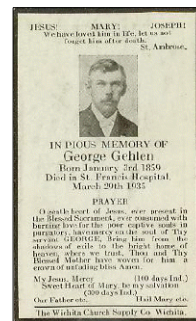

George and his mother, Katie, came together from Germany [Luxembourg by way of Germany]. They lived between St. Marys, Aleppo, and Garden Plain, Kansas, where George met Philomena.

George and Philomena were married on September 6, 1898, at St. Mary's Aleppo, [KS] by Father Loevenich, and lived southwest of St. Mary's. George sang in the church choir as a soloist without organ music. The priest would greet him on Sunday mornings by saying, "Mr. Gehlen, are you going to crow again?"

The Gehlens farmed in various places, and while living north of Kingman, Kansas, a tornado struck their home and took it from its foundation, but luckily they were uninjured. Somewhat later they moved to Colwich, Kansas, where George worked as a janitor for the school and church there.

They were the parents of Aloysius, who died as an infant, and is buried in the St. Marys, Aleppo, Cemetery, Ollie, George Jr., and Anna (Weninger), who are all deceased and buried at Colwich, Susan (Libel), who lives in Andale, Kansas, and Leo who lives in Wichita, Kansas. George passed away on March 29, 1935. Philomena passed away on February 18, 1941. Both are buried in the Colwich, Kansas, cemetery.

General Notes: Obituary:

TOPPENISH - After a long and eventful life, Robert (Bob) Ellis Gehlen, a member of the Yakama Indian Tribe, went to be with our Lord on May 29, 2013. Bob was born on May 31, 1923, the youngest of four boys, to Frank and Leava Gehlen. With a beautiful tenor voice, Bob sang in the choir for many years, and was choir director at St. Aloysius Catholic Church for many more. He sang solo for numerous weddings and funerals throughout his life.

Bob was an honor student and Student Body President at Toppenish High School. He enjoyed tennis and football. Even though he lost an arm to gas gangrene as a young boy, Bob became captain of the football team, lettering as a tackle and making the All Valley team as guard.

When World War II broke out, Bob left home to work in the shipyards until he was needed to help run the family farm. In 1944 he attended college at WSC, where he joined the fraternity, Beta Theta Pi, and received a degree in agricultural economics. He met Teresa Thorpe and after graduation, they married on June 6, 1949.

The couple returned to Toppenish to start their new life together. Over the years Bob experienced various job opportunities including teaching veterans for the On-the-Farm training program. He worked as a Loan Specialist for Production Credit Association for 17 years. He became Director of People for People, worked as an administrator for the Yakima Valley Community College branch in the Lower Valley. Following this, he became Credit Manager for the Yakama Nation Credit Enterprise. Bob enjoyed working at the agency until his retirement in 1992. He was one of the first people in the Valley to receive a heart defibrillator. After retirement, he enjoyed spending more time with his family, watching football, and working on his financial investments.

Bob loved to laugh and would tease nearly everyone he met. Family was very important to Bob. He and his wife raised five daughters passing on their combined love of God, music, and laughter.

Bob and Teresa would have celebrated 64 years of marriage this June. They often joked that the first 30 years were the hardest. Despite this assertion, it was clear to everyone that their love had only deepened through the years until they truly had become one. Bob and Terri were the epitome of what a marriage should be, truly understanding that love is patient, kind, and enduring forever.

Bob was preceded in death by his brothers, Frank, Bill and Joe, his parents, Frank and Leava Gehlen, and grandparents Nevada Lillie & Josephine Bowser Lillie. Nevada Lillie drove stagecoach from Toppenish to the Dalles. Josephine Bowser Lillie was the mother of Toppenish.

Descendants of gnu (Gellen) Gehlen

Two other relatives that played an important role in Bob's life include Bob's aunts, Maud Bolin and Reata Baird. Maud was one of the earliest women to pilot her own plane, and is also pictured on one of Toppenish's murals. Reata, an accomplished musician, taught music lesson to Bob's children.

Bob is survived by his wife, Teresa Gehlen, and five daughters; Cheryl Coder, (Mike), Bellingham, WA; Jill Yeager of Mountain Top, PA; Mary Gehlen of Issaquah, WA; Barbara Gehlen of Olympia; and Teresa Gehlen of Toppenish.

They have 12 grandchildren and 15 great grandchildren, with two more due in July.

Rosary is at 6 PM Sunday at Colonial Funeral home in Toppenish and Mass of Resurrection will take place at 10 AM, Monday, June 3rd at St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Toppenish.

The family would like to extend a special gratitude to Dean Goroski, with the Yakima Indian Health Service, who has been such a help, to the doctors, PAs and staff at the Yakima Heart Center, to Dr. Ricking at YVFWC and finally to the doctors and staff at Toppenish Hospital for their kindness during Bob's final moments with his family.

General Notes: William Alfred Diedrich May 13, 1925 - November 25, 2009 William "Bill" Diedrich, 84, passed away November 25, 2009 in the comfort of his home in Bakersfield, California. The son of William and Mae Diedrich was born in South Dakota on May 13, 1925. He was a highly respected and honest man; a steadfast husband, esteemed father, loving grandfather and great grandfather, and friend. After completing his schooling in South Dakota, Bill served in the United States Navy which brought him to California. Following a honorable discharge, he wed an ambitious, young Dorothy Roberts in January of 1946. Bill relocated with his family from Northern California to San Diego, settling finally in Kern County in 1965 where he owned and operated a family service station in Lamont. Bill was, to all who had the opportunity to meet him, a humble and candid man. He had a subtle streak of stubbornness and a playful sense of humor. He was a loving provider to his family and a wonderful role model to his grandchildren and great grandchildren. As an avid golfer, Bill and his longtime buddy, Carl, amassed more divots than his 9 holes-in-one at local golf courses. Later in life, Bill shared much of his time, travels, and companionship with Rose Munson who became a valued family friend. He was a teller of jokes, always full of smiles, and will be greatly missed by his family, friends, and all who knew him. Bill is preceded in death by his parents, multiple siblings, granddaughter, Jennifer Diedrich and wife of 55 years, Dorothy Diedrich. He is survived by his sisters, Maxine and Delores McKelvey, and their husbands; sons, Donald and Ronald, and his wife Estella; 3 grandchildren, John, Daniel and Melissa Diedrich; and several great grandchildren. A memorial service in honor of his Catholic faith will be held Tuesday, December 1, 2009 at 9:30 a.m. at St. Philip the Apostle Catholic Church on Stockdale Highway with a graveside service at Greenlawn Southwest to follow.
